The Gospel for September

Sept 7th , Matthew 18:1-20

Who is the Greatest?

¹⁸ At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ² And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them ³ and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Sept 14th, Matthew 18:21-35

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

²¹ Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" ²² Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times.

Sept 21st, Matthew 20:1-16

Laborers in the Vineyard

¹⁰ Now when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more, but each of them also received a denarius. ¹¹ And on receiving it they grumbled at the master of the house, ¹² saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' ¹³ But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? ¹⁴ Take what belongs to you and go. I choose to give to this last worker as I give to you. ¹⁵ Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?' ¹⁶ So the last will be first, and the first last."

Sept 28th, Matthew 21:23-27

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

²³ And when he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" ²⁴ Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵ The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man?" And they discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' ²⁶ But if we say, 'From man,' we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet." ²⁷ So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Mattherw 21:28-32

The Parable of the Two Sons

²⁸ "What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' ²⁹ And he answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind and went. ³⁰ And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, 'I will, sir,' but did not go. ³¹ Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. ³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds

By the time you receive this, school will be back in session, and we'll all be wondering how the summer months could have once again flown by so quickly. No matter how much we remind ourselves that there are always 24 hours in a day, 7 days in a week, and 365 days in a year, it seems that time still has a way of speeding up or slowing down depending on the circumstances. Time either doesn't move fast enough to suit our desires when we're excited for something in the future, or it moves too quickly when we're dreading what lies ahead.

Such restlessness is a symptom of a deeper problem. The problem isn't with the calendar or the clock, the problem is that we're not at peace with God. Although we might acknowledge it intellectually, not one of us can fully confess with unwavering confidence what King David wrote in Psalm 31:

*But I trust in you, O Lord;
I say, "You are my God."
My times are in your hand.
(Ps. 31:14-15a)*

We may have regrets over wasted time and missed opportunities. Such regrets can leave us wishing we could go back and try again. Or we may wish we could skip over the slow, agonizing days and minutes of a long wait for something. But to acknowledge that our times are in God's hand is to acknowledge and accept that God, in His infinite wisdom and mercy, has given us only one part of time to do something with—the present. All we can do with the past is learn from it and let it go. All we can do with regards to the future is to prepare for it by our use of the present.

Letting go of the past means trusting in God's promise of forgiveness for our failures. Using the present to prepare for the future means stepping boldly through each moment of time, trusting in God's mercy and forgiveness for any future failures and also trusting in His promise that is so beautifully expressed by Jeremiah: "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope" (Jer. 29:11).

We can live in the present with no regrets regarding the past and we can look ahead to the future with no fear because we have a Savior who came in the "fullness of time" (Gal. 4:4) to be the once-for-all sacrifice for all sins of all time. We have the present as a gift from God to use according to His will. The path for us to follow is illuminated by His Word (Ps. 119:105). As we continue to walk along that path in the present, there will be times that it feels as though our feet are weighed down with lead weights and other times that it will feel as though the path is moving under our feet like a treadmill on its fastest speed.

And when the weight on our feet feels too heavy or the speed of the treadmill seems too fast, it's time to be reminded of the Psalmist's words: "Be still and know that I am God" (Ps. 46:10). Then we will be able to hear His quiet voice speaking through His Word to bring order out of chaos just as He did at the beginning of time with the creation of the world and as He restored order back to our fallen world and sanctified our time in it by sending His eternal Son to enter time for us ("born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate...the third day He rose again from the dead").

The summer months are gone. A new school year has begun. And with the arrival of this transition, we pray:

Eternal Father, for every change and transition that the clock and the calendar bring into our lives, lead us by Your grace to trust that our times are in Your hand. Amen.

Your Servant in Christ,
Pastor Licht

Effective Personal Witnessing*

HOW TO SHARE CHRIST CONFIDENTLY

Beginning Study, Sunday,
September 24 @ 10:30am

Why should you consider joining us for this study?

- 1. Serious Christians take seriously the sharing of their faith.
- 2. However, we often find the experience frustrating and uncomfortable.
- 3. Thankfully, God enables us to understand what inhibits our witness, and even more important, He also enables us to improve.

LITTLE BLESSINGS DAYCARE

“Proclaiming the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ to children and their parents through a high quality child care program.”

Submitted by Angela Stickel, Interim Director

Little Blessings – “Proclaiming the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ to children and their parents through a high quality child care program.”

Little Blessings had a great summer! We enjoyed having the School-agers here - meeting new families and seeing our returning families. We are also glad School will be back in, and we PRAY that the kids have a safe and happy school year.

I wanted to try something new for our upcoming newsletters I would like to introduce you to our daily routine for each classroom over the next few months.

This month I would love to tell you about the Toddler Room! What can I say about this busy room...

Even though the toddlers can be hard to wrangle together, Ms. Hannah and Miss Lilly start our morning with our morning prayer.

Dear God, I thank you every time I pray:
for keeping me safe throughout the day,
for blessing me with your love and care,
for teaching me to give and share.
Bless my friends and bless me, too,
In everything I say and do.
Amen

Then we enjoy story time: our book is either based on the Bible Story for the week or other targets from our lesson plan. Then we move over to our flannel board area and have our Bible Story & Circle time (shapes, colors, songs). We then move on to Music and Movement (Dancing, Yoga, Marching), Fitting in snack time includes getting all our friends to learn to sit together like a family. We have our prayer before our meal. After our snack, we have our Art time (art can be from our Bible story /Target lesson). We then move on to outside time. We have diaper changes and free time. Next, we move on to learning Nursery Rhymes before lunch. At lunch we give thanks to the Lord for our food. After lunch is cleaned up, we get ready for nap. After naptime, for the afternoon we start everything all over again. We have another snack and pray before we have our meal. Then Ms. Stephanie starts with an afternoon prayer before we have story time. Then we go through another round of Bible story/circle time and art. As all that goes on, our friends start to leave for the day.

I thought since the congregation can't always come to visit us; this can be a way to share how our day goes back here in the daycare.

In Christ,
Angie

All Things NEW

Higher Things Conferences 2025

HE WHO WAS SEATED ON THE THRONE SAID, "I AM MAKING EVERYTHING NEW!"
(REVELATION 21:5)

The youth of Risen Christ would like to thank the congregation for their support and being able to attend the Higher Things Conference in Grand Rapids, MI in July. They would like to share their favorite moment or aspect of the conference.

Lilli enjoyed chapel...3 times a day! It was a beautiful space with amazing acoustics and you just felt at peace in the space. Also, the breakout sessions with Pastor Goodman were her favorite as she was able to relate and find guidance in his sessions.

Nathan really liked the food at Higher Things and one particularly energetic Pastor was a favorite for the breakout sessions. He liked the session called "What's so funny? Humor and the new life." He also enjoyed getting to experience the trip with his cousin from Zion Lutheran in Taylor Ridge, IL.

Maddie really enjoyed the artwork session at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Grand Rapids, MI. Her favorite was the session called "A Good & Virtuous Life" and learning it's start in philosophy by Aristotle and Martin Luther's different approach and how to live it. She liked the food as well and loved the long road trip itself.

Kali enjoyed the variety of breakout sessions each day. There really seemed to be something for everyone and although I couldn't sit in on them all, I enjoyed the speakers and the content of those I was able to participate in. The individuals leading the breakout sessions were amazing with the youth and really knew how to connect.

Quote from Pastor Licht...Higher Things: Priceless time together with the youth getting to know each other and growing together in God's Word.

Looking forward to Higher Things 2026 in St. Louis, MO!

Serving One Another

CHRIST'S HANDS IN ACTION - Do you have tasks or small jobs around the house with which you need help? Risen Christ is looking to establish a "Service Group" at the church to assist church members (and others) with tasks/small jobs around the house. These small jobs could range from changing light bulbs to raking leaves, to small landscaping projects. As such, we are looking for inputs on service/assistance needs of members. After we formulate a list of projects, we will be seeking participation of members to assist with performance of these service tasks. Please submit ideas/requests to Myles Zirpel, or write them on the sheet in the Narthex, with sufficient contact information to allow follow-up on your suggestions. Thanks in advance for your inputs to jump start this new service opportunity.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE!

Are you looking for ways to serve your neighbor? Consider taking part in one of our service options:

Christ's Hands In Action is a service group created to meet the needs of members of our church and community with small jobs or household tasks which they may not be able to do on their own. Sign-up sheets are available in the Narthex.

Service Videos: Volunteers are wanted to help with video livestreams and editing for network airings. This is a great opportunity for adults and youth alike! Training is available by request.

Board of Trustees is always looking for new members! If hands-on skills are more your area of expertise, consider joining the Board of Trustees. Trustees help maintain the church building and grounds.

Members of all skill levels are needed, so if you have any interest in serving with one of these areas then please contact Myles Zirpel to take part!

If you would like to help with the upkeep or beautification of our church and grounds, please contact Myles Zirpel.
